

Ginny Leppenwell

Ginny leads the people and learning practice of Itica Consult.

Ginny has been a caterer, training manager, lecturer, facilitator, partner, consultant and designer and is committed to delivering effective learning that lasts to enable people and businesses to excel.

Ginny has enjoyed a varied career working with a variety of leading organisations including Disney, Motorola, Marks and Spencer, Ernst & Young and GlaxoSmithKline.

Ginny is passionate about leaving a legacy with the organisations she works with and her focus is always on meeting the client's needs in the most effective way.

Ginny always ensures that the learning can be passed on within the organisation thereby delivering "learning that lasts".

Assignments have included:

Executive Coaching for a Managing Director, enabling him to address the challenges of stepping into this new role.

Researched and validated a world class employee induction programme for a telecoms business, aligning their mission with their brand.

Enabled a newly merged Marketing and Communications team in a leading energy organisation to establish their purpose and goals and align their appraisal systems to their future focus.

Provided executive coaching to enable a senior team to leverage a culture shift programme and create a united, respected and connected organisation and service.

Typical assignments

- Learning development
- Team building
- Leadership coaching
- Facilitation

Contact

Telephone     01223 393 539

Email             ginny.leppenwell@itica.com

Driving business value through technology

Web www.itica.com
Phone +44 (0) 1223 39 35 39